Re: United States v. Pauline Beckham, 16-cr-265 (JMF)

Judge Furman:

The Government respectfully writes in response to the Court's inquiry about the need for the status conference in the above-referenced matter, currently scheduled for January 11, 2020. The Government has conferred with Ms. Beckham's attorney, Robert Baum, Esq., and the Probation Office and all parties concur that the conference should be adjourned.

Ms. Beckham is currently enrolled at an inpatient drug-treatment facility. Her Probation Officer reports that she has been responding well to treatment at the facility and will likely remain there until February. The parties and Probation respectfully request that the Court adjourn the January 11 conference to a date in March, so Ms. Beckham can complete her inpatient treatment program before the next steps in her case take place.

Respectfully submitted,

AUDREY STRAUSS
Acting United States Attorney
